

I am totally against cell phones being used while planes are airborne. To have my quiet interrupted by constant one-sided conversations is totally unappealing. Therefore, I hope the use of cellphones on planes, while in the air, will continue to be banned.